MISCELLANEOUS

The Alberta Annual Conference held its tenth session at Calgary, Alberta, July 16-20. Calgary is centrally located and the first city of the province, but although we have had for several years a few members there, we have no church property and have failed to get a work established. Recently a class of six was organized, and L. E. Barnes, formerly an elder in the Nebraska Conference, was put in charge. It was hoped that holding the conference there would give an impetus to the work and we believe this has been done.

Although lately several have left our conference for what appeared greener fields, the Lord is filling their places with a band of consecrated, whole-souled, able young men, and the work goes on.

Bishop Pearce presided in his usual dignified, able, fatherly manner and his sermons were certainly food for the young ministers.

Miss Helen I. Root gave a missionary address which appealed to all hearts, and with her kindly advice and encouragement greatly strengthened the W. M. S. workers.

Cottrill of McPherson, Kansas, addressed the conference in the interest of Central Academy and College; also preached once and addressed the young people on the spiritual condition of the school. Rev. A. E. Sims, of the Nebraska Conference, was present and preached once. Rev. MISCELLANEOUS

The sixtieth annual session of the Michigan Conference was held at Spring Arbor, Michigan, August 20-23, 1924. Bishop W. H. Clark, who presided, came to us in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of peace. His sermon Sunday morning and addresses to the conference were greatly appreciated.

The pastor at Spring Arbor, B. H. Alberts, with his wife, the pilgrims and friends, were abundant in labors, caring for all in the most splendid manner. This was no small job, as the usual number of visitors were in attendance which made over two hundred to care for.

It was very evident that the spirit of liberality is still living in the conference in that over $700 was raised for the school; $2,350 for the local church and district parsonage; $675 towards the support of a pastor at Ferndale, and over $1,250 for missionary work.

The conference took action to cooperate with the North and East Michigan Conferences to establish a home for old people and orphans near Owosso on land willed to the Michigan conferences. The board of trustees of the conference were authorized to meet the boards of the North and East Michigan Conferences to effect an organization in behalf of such home.

The conference voted that no funds be solicited on the various circuits until such time as J. A. Kelly, financial agent of Spring Arbor Seminary, has visited the same in behalf of the school.

D. S. Warner was nominated to succeed himself as trustee for Spring Arbor Seminary, his time on the board having expired.

The conference requested that the following amounts be granted to the various circuits by the General Missionary Board from the general mission funds the coming year: Ferndale and Redford, $50; Hillsdale and Frontier, $50; Benton Harbor, $60; Hudson, $50; Vicksburg, $40; Decatur, $50.

The request for $500 granted by the General Church Extension Board for the church at Spring Arbor was renewed.

The following brethren in the ministry were introduced to the conference and invited to honorary seats: J. E. Sanders, L. D. Bodine, H. D. F. Gaffin, L. C. Fletcher, G. W. Capps and Quitman Smith, of the North Michigan Conference; M. DeVoist, J. A. Kelly, N. M. Cook and A. A. Davis, of the East Michigan Conference; William Rennie, of the Southern California Conference; Glen Bodine, of the North Dakota Conference; J. C. Sherburne and J. W. Headley, of the Ohio Conference; J. B. Lutz, of the Wabash Conference, who gave an address on Sunday-school work Friday afternoon.

Several of the ministers visiting the conference preached either in the afternoon or evening services.

C. E. Ferguson, pastor at Second Church, Detroit, was very much missed at the conference. He was suffering greatly in his home with inflammatory rheumatism. A season of prayer was engaged in by the conference in his behalf.

The W. M. S. reported $5,024.90 raised during the year.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON EDUCATION

The age in which we live demands thoroughly equipped workers in every vocation in life. We believe a sanctified education to be a potent factor in the propagation of religious truth. Ignorance never helped the cause of God and never will. Therefore we urge each and every minister, both local and traveling, to heed the apostolic admonition, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." Mr. Wesley asked the question in one of his early conferences, "Why are we not more holy?" and answered it by saying, "Chiefly because we are not more knowing." If this be true, if the amount of holiness we possess depends in some degree upon the amount of knowledge, then our privilege becomes our duty and we shall be held responsible for what we might have been.

"Christ wants the best. He in the far-off ages
Once claimed the firstling of the flock, the finest of the wheat,
And still He asks His own with gentlest pleading
To lay their highest hopes and brightest talents at His feet.
He'll not forget the feeblest service, humblest love.
He only asks that of our store we give to Him

The best we have.

And is our best too much?

The Lord of lords, by whom the worlds were made,
Through bitter grief and tears gave us

The best He had.

And dare we offer less?"

The subject of education is one in which all should be interested. We note some tendencies in the educational world that seem hopeful and some that cause alarm. Having a desire to be optimistic we look first on the bright side of the situation.

There seems to be a feeling among educators and statesmen that our schools are not turning out the right kind of citizens. Hence the subject of character education is receiving greater emphasis of late. President Coolidge said in a recent address: "It is not enough to train the hand, the eye, to quicken the perception of the senses, develop the quickness of the intellect, and leave out of consideration the building up of character, the aspirations of the soul." President Burton, of the University of Michigan, during the past year scathingly denounced the code of morals in vogue at the university and called upon the students to reform. We are glad, also, to note that the superintendent of Public Instruction has instructed the directors of the school districts throughout the state to purchase copies of the Bible and place the same in the various schools. We trust that the Legislature will now take the next step and pass a law compelling the reading of the same to the pupils by the teacher.

But while these things are encouraging there are some things that cause us concern.

Evolution, anti-christian and anti-scientific, is still being taught in the schools. Not only in the high schools and colleges, but even in the grades the subtle virus is being injected into the minds of the youths. A certain teacher in one of our city schools in teaching a beginning class in geography, recently, when the subject turned to the subject of the origin of man, allowed them considerable latitude to express their views. Some of the little folks were Sunday-school scholars and were quite positive in their declarations that God made man. Others thought that man sprang from the monkey. After allowing the discussion to proceed for some time, the teacher finally brought it to a close by saying in a superior sort of way, "Well, children, you know we have just as much evidence to prove that man sprang from the monkey as we have to prove that God made man." Poor thing! she was not to blame for the statement. She was probably a victim of the teaching of the normal school from which she graduated.

How thankful we as people ought to be that we have within the bounds of our conference a school where the Bible is revered and taught as the inspired Word of God. Here our children may be thoroughly fortified against the teachings of these destroyers of faith.

We pledge our loyalty to this school and promise to faithfully cooperate with those who administer the affairs of this institution.

MISCELLANEOUS

The forty-sixth session of the Ohio Annual Conference was one of the most largely attended in recent years. The entertainment was of a high order. The weather was ideal. Harmony marked each sitting. The sermons and addresses of the bishop were sources of encouragement and faith. W. W. Vinson and Miss Emma Corson ably represented the missionary cause. The corner-stone of a new brick church was laid Friday afternoon during a very nice service conducted by Bishop Pearce. Nearly $2,000 was realized in cash and subscriptions for the new church. We were favored in having the use of the Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal church during our conference. The appointments were well received in the main.

REPORT OF SPECIAL FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Stewardship Fund—This fund must be raised in full and your committee recommends that each pastor take a subscription early in the conference year to cover the amount he is asked to raise for this fund. We also recommend that each district elder see that the subscriptions are taken on each circuit on his respective district and report on the matter at the next session of conference.

Money for Missions—We recommend that the same method be used as was ordered used last year and that all pastors and members of each society cooperate most heartily with the Woman's Missionary Society in raising our full quota of missionary money needed to care for the missionary interests of the church. We further recommend that at each quarterly conference each pastor report the way in which he has cooperated with the Woman's Missionary Society. We further recommend that the district elders call for such reports at each quarterly conference. We recommend also that in harmony with our action of last year, one-fourth of all money coming to the conference treasurer of the Woman's Missionary Society be sent to the conference treasurer and credited to the amount the pastors have been asked to raise for missions.

MISCELLANEOUS

The thirty-fifth session of the Southern California Annual Conference convened at Hermon, Los Angeles, California, June 17-22, in the fine large auditorium on our camp ground. Bishop David S. Warner came to us "in the fulness of the blessing" and presided with ability and was made a great blessing to the conference. His sermon Sunday morning was preached with much of the unction of the Spirit and was an inspiration to all.

Bishop Walter A. Sellow and Evangelist M. E. Lewis were the invited help at the camp meeting. Their preaching was of a very high type, and God used these worthy men to preach full salvation. Souls were saved and sanctified as a result. Night after night the long altar was filled with seekers. Many remarked that it was the best camp meeting and conference they had attended in years.

President and Mrs. Burritt, of Greenville College, were with us throughout. President Burritt gave the principal address at the educational meeting for Los Angeles Pacific Junior College. Mrs. Burritt spoke a number of times at the missionary workers' meetings. Their presence with us at our annual gathering was appreciated by all.

The presence of Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft, of China, for the first time in eight years, was a rare treat. Brother and Sister Ashcraft delivered addresses at the public missionary meeting Sunday afternoon.

The Woman's Missionary Society reported over ten thousand dollars raised the past year. The conference adopted a resolution requesting the pastors and official boards of the several societies to adopt the duplex envelope system for the local budget and missions, thus creating a systematic habit of giving to missions. When we consider the large amount raised in the Sunday-school, about one hundred fifty thousand dollars, without a pull or drive, but by means of the pennies, nickles and dimes habitually given every Sunday, we think it will revolutionize our giving to missions if properly presented and carried out.

A very enthusiastic Sunday-school convention was held under the direction of our efficient Sunday-school secretary, Mr. A. G. Ball.

Over eleven thousand dollars was raised during the camp meeting and conference for all purposes. It was a great gathering. The large auditorium, seating over two thousand people, was filled to overflowing several times. The conference is looking up for a great year. A spirit of harmony and love prevailed.

ON EDUCATION

It seems to be an inevitable law in our depraved world that truth and righteousness must contend for their very existence. This dark fact stands out in bold relief with reference to Christ and His kingdom upon the passing centuries.

The methods of the enemy's attack upon the institution and doctrines of Christianity have changed with the ages. Not many decades ago, in the forefront of the adversary's ranks were to be found such men as Tom Paine, Bob Ingersoll and other agnostics and infidels of the first order. Then the warfare shifted for a few years from the open combat to what might be termed dark trench fighting. But recently again the brazen face of unbelief and skepticism has appeared upon the open battlefield. This time, however, the attack comes from a much more dangerous and subtle quarter than in previous generations. Such men as Harry Emerson Fosdick, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Prof. Edward Ross, Shailer Matthews, and a hundred other men of similar character, form the front rank of the enemies of Christianity. These men occupy conspicuous positions in the ecclesiastical and educational world.

One of the foremost leaders of these modern apostles, however, was Dr. William R. Harper, late president of the University of Chicago. This far-sighted man proposed and succeeded in launching a far-flung educational program, whose sole objective was the compulsory introduction of evolutionary science into the curriculum of the American school system. This man and his associates worked their plans so subtly and persistently that today our entire state institutions are infected with their pernicious teachings. The Scriptures have been dethroned and evolution science has been proclaimed king. God has been quietly disposed of: the Bible has been robbed of its cardinal doctrines:

and Jesus Christ has been pronounced but a Jewish peasant with a remarkable capacity for religious thought—a genius for religion, just as Shakespeare has been recognized as a genius in literature and Thomas Edison in the laws of mechanics.

With such an alarming situation prevailing, I am sure you will all agree with your committee that Christian education looms before the Christian world as a necessity of first magnitude. There is no problem of greater import confronting the Christian Church than the education of her sons and daughters in the principles of redemption's plans. It is a fact too well known for argument here that the life story of every person's career is pretty well told by the type of training and influence he has had in the springtime of life. If this fact be true, the Christian education, with the exception of the blessing of God itself, is the outstanding issue of our generation.

The founders of our beloved denomination, early in our history, sensed the need of a school system of our own, if our principles of faith were to be perpetuated. Thus a number of institutions have been established; from the walls of these eight schools have come most of our workers in both home and foreign fields. With each passing year these institutions are occupying a greater strategical place in our denominational life. The maintenance of these recruiting stations is imperative!

Therefore, as a conference, let us redouble our efforts in support of the institution that is within our borders. The Los Angeles Pacific Junior College has proven an untold blessing to this part of our Zion. Without doubt, with each passing year it will occupy still a more vital part in our spiritual life. Your committee therefore throws out the challenge once again for every member of the Southern California Conference to stand back of their school with their money, good-will, and prayers.

ON CHARITIES

We deem it a great privilege in the work of our beloved Free Methodist Church to be called upon to participate in the worthy work in the capacity of our charitable institutions. Our gracious Lord has given us the care of three charitable institutions in which we may all have a lot and part in furthering the work successfully in these Homes. May the God of hosts so lay this work upon our hearts that these charities may be kept in mind and heart especially at the glorious Easter time. (Our Discipline requires that the pastor of each society preach a sermon on practical charity and take an offering once a year for this most worthy work.) We would further remind you that these institutions are ever making just demands upon us that those being served may have the best as they will deserve and that our institutions may be kept up to date, without a reproach upon them. May our heavenly Father so help each of us that we may inquire, What wilt Thou have me to do? and then diligently act. We have three most worthy charitable institutions, viz., the Gerry Homes at Gerry, New York, the Woodstock Homes at Woodstock, Illinois, and the Life Line Rescue Home at Kansas City, Missouri. Shall we not get under this work and make it second to none in this great and worthy cause, for which our Lord and Savior reminded us will ever be with us?

We also urge that pastors look carefully to the worthy poor of their several societies.

MISCELLANEOUS

The twenty-ninth annual session of the West Ontario Conference was held at Niagara Falls, Ontario, August 20-24. Bishop William Pearce came to us in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel and presided over the business sittings with grace and acceptability. His preaching of the Word was with power, the messages being full of inspiration to both ministers and laymen. The missionary meeting Sabbath afternoon was ably conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Jules Ryff of South Africa. We are sure their addresses will be a great uplift to our missionary work. The offering amounted to $102, and for all purposes an amount totaling $2,500 was raised during the conference.

The principal of Lorne Park Seminary, Rev. J. F. Gregory, was with us, and assisted by Alice E. Walls and the financial agent, Rev. J. M. Eagle, conducted a very successful meeting in the interests of our new Canadian school.

Our able editor of the Canadian Free Methodist, Rev. R. H. Hamilton, was present, presenting the needs of the paper, and he received a liberal support for the same.

The following were the visiting ministers: Revs. C. McCallum, C. Cunningham, W. E. Freeman, M. S. Benn, H. Linstead.

MISCELLANEOUS

The conference was held in our own Eureka Lake Park, located four miles west of Manhattan, Kansas, on the Junction City and Manhattan interurban electric line, and also the Golden Belt automobile highway. This beautiful park of twenty-eight acres of fine shade and blue-grass and with several good buildings which are being used for auditorium, dining hall, and dormitory, was purchased by the conference during the year for the small amount of $5,500. There is also a perfect water system with numerous hydrants and drinking fountains and electric lighting over the entire grounds and buildings. Bishop David S.

Warner presided at this session with great acceptability. His addresses and sermons were appreciated by all.

The camp meeting which preceded the conference one week and then continued simultaneously with it, was a gracious season of soul-saving under the able direction of Walter C. Graves as special evangelist.

Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft, returned missionaries from China, were present and held an inspiring missionary service for the W. M. S. on Sunday afternoon. Over $600 was raised for this worthy cause. Over $3,000 was raised on Sunday morning to finish paying for the new camp ground, after which it was dedicated by Bishop Warner.

Rev. E. A. Tapper, of the Illinois Conference, was present as book representative, preaching once to the edification of all.

Other appreciated visiting ministers were Rev. W. E. Keasling, Rev. A. E. Grothaus, Rev. Thomas Pyle, of the West Kansas Conference; Rev. J. A. Manning, of the California Conference; Rev. Nathan C. Beskin, of the East Michigan Conference; Rev. F. J. Shaffer, of the People's Church of Omaha, Nebraska.

M. S. Jensen and Charles Easterling were ordained deacons at the Sunday afternoon service.

MISCELLANEOUS

The forty-sixth session of the Central Illinois Annual Conference was a very spiritual one. The pastor and his band of faithful members and friends entertained the conference in a royal way. Through the kindness of the school board we had the privilege of using one of the grade buildings for a dining hall, and the large high school auditorium for the evangelistic services at night. Bishop David S. Warner presided in a very able manner. His sermon Sunday morning on the text, "I am doing a great work, so that I can not come down" was a master-piece. E. P. Ashcraft and wife, missionaries from China, gave a splendid missionary address Sunday afternoon. What Bishop Warner termed the most hilarious collection he ever saw was taken Saturday morning for the pastor who had labored on the Athens and Forest City circuit the past year. The opening sermon was preached Tuesday night by D. R. Taylor. Others who preached were F. D. Boling, T. A. Bailey, W. R. Jacoby, E. P. Boyd and B. L. Olmstead.

ON MEMOIRS

FRANKLIN H. ASHCRAFT

Rev. F. H. Ashcraft was fruit of the holiness movement which in the year 1875, under the leadership of M. L. Haney, L. B. Kent and other laymen, swept over Central Illinois. Radically converted and a few days later wholly sanctified, he at once went forth in all the strength and enthusiasm of his young manhood as a flaming evangel of full salvation.

In 1879 he was the leading spirit in the organization of the Central Illinois Conference, and took as his first conference appointment Kaskaskia circuit, a region which comprised all of the territory now included in the Greenville and Cowden Districts. He served as district elder from 1885 to 1892, when he became financial agent of Greenville College, an institution which from its inception took strong hold upon his heart.

He was delegate to seven General Conferences from 1886 to 1911, and for sixteen years he was a member of the Executive Committee. For some years he traveled throughout the connection as General Conference evangelist.

As an annual conference in which our departed brother was a charter member and held continuous membership for forty-five years, we are glad to record our grateful appreciation of his Christian character and distinguished service. F. H. Ashcraft was truly a great man. He was great in his physical personality. He was correspondingly great in his intellectual power. Whether in secular matters, such as political economy or administration, or in ecclesiastical questions of spiritual truth or church policy, he possessed rare ability in his grasp of fundamental principles, and the power to explain and defend the same. He had an unusually clear conception of the essential truths of New Testament religion. He was recognized for many years as a foremost exponent of the Wesleyan doctrine of entire holiness in the intellectual aspects of this glorious doctrine and experience. To his everlasting credit, wherever he went he was a preacher of holiness. He preached it with simplicity and yet with great power. He was an apostle to the saints scattered abroad of the grace that saves from sin.

Brother Ashcraft was great as a preacher. He was clear in his exposition, forceful in his presentation, and mighty in the strength of his application. He moved large audiences to conviction and into the grace of the gospel which he preached. He was a practical preacher. His one aim was to help people to God.

He was true to his convictions. He was strong in his loyalty to the church. He was faithful to the younger preachers of the conference. Many will testify to the value of his fatherly counsel. He gave generously of his stores of Scripture truth or practical knowledge to all who might apply. He was strong in prayer. He lived and walked with God. "Being dead he yet speaketh," in the life of Greenville College, in the work of the Central Illinois Conference, and in the evangelism of the whole church.

MISCELLANEOUS

The North Michigan Conference held its forty-ninth annual session at Manton, Michigan, August 5-10, in connection with a camp meeting which commenced one week before the session of conference. There was a good attendance, and much good was done in the meetings. The early morning sermons by Rev. J. LaDue were greatly appreciated by large crowds.

Bishop W. H. Clark was with us and presided with ability. Sunday afternoon, before the preaching service, D. A. McPhee, Basil Dickinson, A. G. Burley, E. W. Price, and William Erickson were ordained deacons, and in the evening W. J. Angerer and R. G. Calkins were ordained elders.

It was ordered to hold the next session in the same place, and, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the conference, it is expected there will be a very large camp meeting. An effort will be made to rally a large attendance.

ON STATE OF THE WORK

We as a conference have reason to praise the Lord and to call upon all that is within us to bless His holy name. While we have not had a great outpouring of the Spirit as on the day of Pentecost, and hundreds brought into the fold, we have nevertheless had some gracious outpourings of the Spirit, and souls have been saved and believers sanctified. Our preachers seem to have no disposition to lower the standard but are disposed to stand by the ancient landmarks which our fathers have set. They are earnest and self-sacrificing men. While this and much more might be said in praise of our Zion, we verily believe there is room for improvement, and greater victories might be won and more added to the church.

The age in which we live is an extremely worldly one and the lure of the world is great. Constant watchfulness and care are necessary if we would maintain the Bible standard of pure and undefiled religion. There is need of line upon line, and precept upon precept, lest we depart from the holy commandment delivered unto us. The call of the Word is separation—"Wherefore come ye out from among them, and be ye 'separate,'" "Be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed," "If ye love the world, the love of the Father is not in you," "Be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord."

We would emphasize the importance of every pastor observing the disciplinary requirement to read the General Rules once a quarter in every society, and once a year in every congregation; also the reading of the sermon on dress, and evil speaking.

We would also urge every pastor to observe the Disciplinary requirement relative to pastoral visiting. Few, if any, complaints are heard relative to preaching ability, but complaints are frequent relative to pastoral work. Every Free Methodist home should be entered by a pastoral visitation once a quarter, and every home (in cities excepted) within the bounds of the circuit at least once a year. The Discipline inquires and states as follows: "And what avails public preaching alone though we could preach like angels? We must, yea, every traveling preacher must, instruct the people from house to house" The world can meet argument with argument, and logic with logic, but they are shorn of their strength before the gift of power which God said we should receive after the Holy Ghost is come upon us. Let us fast and pray, and go to our knees for a pentecostal baptism.

When we close this annual session we enter upon the semi-centennial year of our organization as a conference. Your committee would advise that we endeavor to make this the banner year of our history as a conference. We would recommend that every district hold a June or July camp meeting, give emphasis that it is an anniversary, or a semi-centennial camp meeting. Advertise extensively. Call for seasons of fasting and prayer for the Lord to revive His work. We would also recommend all be urged to attend the annual conference camp meeting to be held on these grounds next August.

He was admitted into the New York Conference in 1881, and was sent to Windsor and Sanford circuit; in 1882 and 1883 to Prospect Hill and Keiserville; 1884 to Jersey Hill. He was district elder of the New York and Philadelphia Districts, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888; of the Wilkes-Barre and Windsor Districts, 1889, 1890, 1891, 1892; of the New York and Philadelphia Districts, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896; conference missionary 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900; district elder of the Wilkes-Barre District, 1901, 1902, 1903; of the New York and Philadelphia Districts, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907; of the Wilkes-Barre and Windsor Districts, 1908, 1909; of the Wilkes-Barre District, 1910, 1911; conference evangelist, 1912, 1913, 1914; pastor at Allentown, 1915; district elder of the Wilkes-Barre District, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919; pastor at Waverly and Scranton, 1920; superannuated, 1921; district elder Wilkes-Barre District, 1922, 1923. He was serving his twenty-ninth year as district elder when he died; had been conference missionary four years, conference evangelist three years, pastor six years, and superannuated one year. He was elected delegate from the New York Conference to the General Conference several times, but owing to his timidity and reluctance to appear in great gatherings, he attended but one. He was a graduate of Drew Theological Seminary. He was no ordinary man. He was a preacher of exceptional ability. In theology and disciplinary law he was remarkably well versed. His sermons were homiletically perfect. He was a master of logic. As a parliamentarian he was of first rank. His executive ability was marked. He was a wise administrator. A man of less ability would never have been elected district elder in the New York Conference twenty-nine times in forty-three years. He did thorough work, and it will abide. He was a loving husband, a kind father, a sincere friend, a true Christian, a loyal Free Methodist. He was systematic in all his affairs, and he was one of the very best camp meeting managers of the church. His work on earth has been completed and he rests from his labors. Rev. George Eakins, a lifelong friend, officiated at the funeral services. His text was from 2 Samuel 3:38, "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?"

KETELS

Rev. Oluf Volkent Ketels was born in (the Frisian Isles) Denmark, June 5, 1840. He was converted April 10, 1866, while on a visit to his native land. He was united in marriage to Miss Adina Howe, April 18, 1866, while on the same visit. His wife, to whom he was deeply attached, went to be with Jesus. He remained single quite a number of years, after which he was united in marriage on February 8, 1883, to Miss Julia Grill, who has indeed been a helpmeet to him in every way, assisting him in his labors, and sharing with him his joys and sorrows. Seven children were born to this union. There survive him: his wife Julia; four children, Rev. Oluf Conrad Ketels, of North Wales, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Ruth Julia Wagner, of Newark, New Jersey; Rev. Luther Henry Ketels, of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania; and Miss Mabel May Ketels, of Newark, New Jersey; and many distant relatives, and a host of friends who admired the grace of God in him. He entered the ministry of the Free Methodist Church in the year 1872, having preached a number of years prior thereto. He was eminently successful, serving many charges, and for several years he was district elder in the Iowa and Illinois Conferences. At the age of seventy he took a superannuate relation, but continued to preach as he had opportunity to the end. His efforts were much appreciated by neighboring ministers and churches, who regarded him as a father in the gospel. He was the oldest man in the New York Conference at the time of his death. The length of his ministry exceeded over half a century. He was a well preserved man, and it would seem might have lived for several years more had he not had a fall and hurt his knee. At first this was not considered serious, but it resulted in erysipelas which caused his death, in three short weeks, on the 8th of February, despite the most affectionate attention of the whole family and all that medical skill could do. He has not lived in vain. He was not a cumberer of the ground. Of him it might truthfully be said as it was of his Master, "The zeal of thy house hath eaten me up." In his earlier years he, and the devoted band he had gathered around him, went everywhere to preach, teach and witness to the power of the gospel of the Son of God, and all armed with religious literature, which they scattered as they traveled. Their hearts, heads, hands, time, talents, means seemed to be wholly absorbed in the great work of calling sinners to repentance, and then in building them up in that holiness without which no man shall see God. Though he had not the advantage of attending the higher seats of learning, he was a diligent student in the highest of all schools, that of Christ. He was indeed a God-taught and a God-sent man. He had a deep experience in the things of God. His inner nature was cleansed and filled with grace and truth. His heart was clean and taught his head wisdom. For "Out of the heart are the issues of life." God through him wrought mightily. Many were born from above as the result of his ministry. Some have gone on before him. Others are on the way and bid fair to reach the glory land. His deep spirituality and constant effort to know the mind of the Holy Spirit, follow His leadings, and secure His presence and power were large factors in his success and usefulness. For this he sought by prayer and fasting and the study of God's Word. Prayer was his stronghold to which he resorted in every time of need. He believed in, sought for, and received special outpourings, showers of blessing. Sometimes these would come in torrents while he was engaged in prayer, preaching or listening to the Word. Under the influence of such baptisms as this the words, whether of testimony or preaching would at times flow from his lips as a living stream, and with such power as to be almost overwhelming. He was a fundamentalist in doctrine. He was "an able minister of the New Testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit; for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." May a double portion of that spirit which at times rested upon him so mightily be bestowed upon each of us who survive him. Possessing much native ability and intuition he was a born leader. As he managed his own affairs, so he conducted the business of churches and districts he served, with discretion. In some degree at least we think it was due to his sagacity that our German societies ever came into the possession of any church or parsonage properties. The members of his family testify that as husband and father he was ever tenderly affectionate and solicitous of their comfort and welfare.

CAVNAUGH

John Cavanaugh was born at Leechburg, Virginia, June 29, 1842, and died at Factoryville, Pennsylvania, October 1, 1923, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was of Irish parentage and was reared in the Roman Catholic faith. He was gloriously converted in a class meeting on Sunday morning, December 8, 1872, at Riley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church, in the City of Washington, D. C. A revival meeting was being held there, and in passing the church he was attracted by the singing and entered the church, and there heard his first gospel sermon. He went to the altar that night and sought pardon and continued to seek until the next Sunday morning, when the light from heaven broke upon his soul. He shouted aloud the praises of God amid the general rejoicing of those present. Three weeks afterward he received the experience of entire sanctification at Wesley Chapel, Methodist Episcopal Church, in Washington. He was soon given exhorter's license and this was followed by local preacher's license, and he planned to start out in the work of the Lord some time. Eight years afterward Rev. Joseph Travis began to preach in Washington and Brother Cavanaugh endorsed the truth and became one of the charter members of the society which was organized in a private house, and ever afterward remained a loyal member of the Free Methodist Church. He became a street preacher shortly after his conversion and attracted and entertained great crowds wherever he went. The blowing of his bugle was the signal that people regarded as a call to hear the earnest preacher who dared to go out into the open air and proclaim the gospel of the Son of God. It is safe to say that he never visited a town or city in all the years after his conversion that he did not hold a street meeting. He was admitted into the New York Conference in 1888. On September 5, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Louisa Simmons, of Washington, D. C. He is survived by his widow, Sister Cavanaugh, a godly woman, who has been his faithful companion and inspiration for over fifty-six years, and to whom he owed much of his success in the ministry; and Ruth, wife of Mr. Harold LaQuay, of Washington, D. C., and other relatives. Brother Cavanaugh left the seat of conference, Maple Crest, New York, on Monday, September 24, and rode in an auto to Factoryville, Pennsylvania, to the home of a friend, Mr. Willard Ross, and that night was taken very sick. A physician was called and everything possible was done for him, but he continued to grow worse, and on Monday afternoon, a week later, his pure spirit entered Paradise. He knew what was said to him by his friends, and in reply to a question by his wife, a short time before he passed away, he pressed her hand firmly and held on to it, indicating clearly that he understood her question and that he was all right, although too weak to speak. It had been evident for some time past that he was aware of the fact that his end was approaching, for on several occasions he spoke to his wife about arranging their affairs, and he planned to go to Alexandria, shortly after conference, and purchase a burial lot. When she tried to evade conversation on this line, he said that the end would come and that these matters ought to be attended to. John Cavanaugh was a remarkable man in many respects. He had a passionate love for souls, and he never lost an opportunity to warn sinners to flee the wrath to come. His articles in the Free Methodist were always read with interest. He was orthodox in doctrine and did not fail to declare what the Bible taught concerning the eternal punishment of the wicked. He was fearless in his preaching and personal work. He was a perfect gentleman at home or abroad. Many a time he was arrested and imprisoned for preaching on the streets, but this gave him an opportunity to sing and to preach in jail, and the authorities were glad to let him go to get rid of him. When brought to trial he would drop upon his knees and pray for the magistrate and for the policeman who arrested him. He was preeminently an open-air preacher. The street meetings were his delight. He was never so happy as when thus engaged. On the street he would pour out his shot and shell and grape and canister to his heart's delight, and woe to the sinner, backslider or hypocrite who came within the range of his gatling gun on such occasions. He was preeminently a faithful man. His loyalty to God was unquestioned and his faith was never marred by doubts or disobedience. He was faithful to the church. He was a true, blessed, happy, consistent, energetic, untiring, devoted Free Methodist. Not a single drop of compromise blood coursed through his veins. He loved, experienced and preached old-time, Bible salvation. He was a holy man. He communed with God. His prayers seemed like personal conversations with his heavenly Father. His purity of character was unquestioned, and no suspicion was entertained or whispered uttered by any that he was not in character and life exactly what he professed to be. He will be greatly missed, especially in the New York Conference where he has been such a prominent figure for two score years or more. And it is perfectly safe to predict that his place will never be filled.

SERGEANT

Rev. Albert Sergeant, one of the prominent laymen within the bounds of the New York Conference, passed to his heavenly reward from his home in Wilmington, Delaware, on March 8, 1924. He was born in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, April 17, 1835. He was reared on a farm, and at the age of seventeen he went to Philadelphia, where he learned the trade of shipsmith. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted in Company B, Sixth Maryland Regiment, and during the battle of the Wilderness he was severely wounded. In 1872 he settled in Wilmington and engaged in the grocery business. In 1880 he established a coal business. Some time after that his health failed and in 1902 he gave up the active management of the business and turned it over to his son. He was married in 1857 to Rachel Dulaney. His wife died in 1909. For twelve years he was tenderly cared for by Miss Ella Stokley, who did everything in her power to make his life comfortable during his long affliction. She testifies that he was exceedingly kind and patient during all his suffering, and never spoke of "dying," but always referred to "going home." His title was clear to his heavenly home and he longed to be there. He very generously remembered the Free Methodist Church in the disposition of his property. He was converted early in life and received the experience of entire sanctification at one of the earliest camp meetings held by the National Holiness Association. From that time he became intensely interested in spreading Scriptural holiness. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church up to about 1879, when he identified himself with the Free Methodist denomination and used his time, talent and money in pushing the work ahead. He supplied circuits in the New York Conference a few times and his labors were well received wherever he went. He was an ordained local elder. His preaching was always instructive and deeply spiritual. He was a teacher and he made things very plain as he expounded the word of God. His heart was absorbed in the salvation of the lost. For several years past he suffered greatly with heart trouble. Added to this he became so deaf he could not carry on a conversation. At times his suffering was intense, but never a murmur escaped his lips. His last day on earth was one of suffering. He became blind so he could not see those about him. He attempted to rise from his couch, but when he found he could not, he sank back on the pillow, waved his hand over his head and expired.

WOLFE

Edwin Stanton Wolfe was born September 14, 1865, at Netcong, New Jersey, and died May 4, 1924, at his home in Milford, Pennsylvania, after a prolonged illness. He was blessed with godly parents. He was converted when about ten years old. He did not always keep clear in his experience, but never wilfully departed from God. While attending Spring Arbor Seminary he sought and obtained a definite experience of the saving grace of God. He and others with whom he associated felt that he had a call to preach the gospel. In due time he was granted a local preacher's license in the Free Methodist Church, which relation he held until his death. It was while attending Spring Arbor Seminary, from which he graduated in 1887, that he met Luella Davenport, to whom he was married in 1890. They had three sons and two daughters. I first became acquainted with Brother Wolfe while pastor on Simon and Ariel circuit about twenty-nine years ago. We have often met during these years in religious gatherings and for the last five years we have had business transactions as well. In all our dealings we always found him standing true to the principles of righteousness. While he never entered upon the regular work of the ministry, he was acting pastor of the Godeffroy circuit for about ten years. He drove from Milford to Godeffroy, a distance of about thirteen miles, making no charges for his services. As there was no Free Methodist society and church in Milford he preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church, occasionally, as opportunity was given. He was often called upon to preach funeral sermons for families remote from town. He was prominent in every movement both in town and church for the betterment of society. He took an active part in the Sabbath-school work. He was engaged in lumbering. He erected a mill in Milford and became a successful building contractor. He was always ready to give a helping hand to those in need. He never neglected nor refused to assist in the Free Methodist work when called upon for contributions. "He will be missed in the home, in the church, in business and civic activities of the borough." His employees esteemed and respected him. His wife; two sons, Clinton D. and Burton A. of Milford, Pennsylvania; two daughters, Grace H. of Patterson; and Mrs. Paul Cutter, of Hopewell, New Jersey; two sisters and six brothers survive him. The funeral was held at the house, May 8. His body was laid to rest in the family plot in the Milford cemetery.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON MEMOIRS

Reuben Carston McDaniel was born March 23, 1874, and departed this life October 24, 1923. When a young man he removed from his native state, Kentucky, to Terre Haute, Indiana, and entered the railroad business, occupying at the time of his call to the ministry the position of engineer.

He was married June 25, 1903, to Miss Mattie Lawrence, with whom he lived and labored in true fellowship.

In the year 1903 he joined the Central Illinois Conference and served as pastor at Taylorville. He was transferred to the Wabash Conference in 1905 and served as pastor the following charges: Belmont, Westfield, Birds, Urbana, Pine Village, Terre Haute, Bloomington, and LaFayette.

The board of directors of the Homes at Gerry, New York, elected him superintendent, August 8, 1923. He took up the work a month later. The blessing of the Lord was upon him in this work.

On October 14 he had a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. For nine days he suffered greatly but in much patience. In his last prayer he was victorious and resigned to the will of God. Our dear departed brother was a noble, unassuming, faithful saint of God. We miss him in the great harvest field. May we who remain be faithful "till the close of the day." Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to his faithful wife in this her great sorrow.

MISCELLANEOUS

The twenty-sixth session of the Oklahoma Annual Conference convened at Highland Park, Guthrie, Oklahoma, September 3, 1924, in connection with the camp meeting which began August 29. It was characterized by harmony and deep spirituality. Bishop David S. Warner presided over the conference with marked ability and impartiality. His addresses to the conference were very helpful. His sermons were deep, thorough and spiritual. His services were highly appreciated by the conference. The evangelistic services were conducted by the conference preachers and visiting ministers. The altar was filled with seekers at nearly every service, and a large number found the Lord in saving or sanctifying grace.

Rev. F. L. Baker, missionary field secretary, preached a stirring missionary sermon the last Sunday afternoon, which was followed by a substantial subscription and cash offering. Among the noted visitors were Prof. H. J. Long, of Central Academy and College; Rev. J. L. Brown, of the West Kansas Conference, and Rev. E. R. Ford, of the Kansas Conference. Great impetus was given the meetings through the activities of our young people in prayer, song, testimony and personal work. The attendance was the largest in years; there were eighty-three tents on the ground. The conference purchased a park at Geary, Oklahoma, for a permanent camp ground and raised a good subscription for the improvement of the same. The next session of the conference will be held on the new camp ground at Geary.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

ON STATE OF THE WORK

The wheels of time have made another revolution, completing the forty-first year in the history of the Pittsburgh Conference. The past is behind us, while the future is before us.

Revival meetings have been held on practically every point in the conference, and in some cases two meetings have been held with fairly good results. Besides the regular meetings in the churches, six tent meetings have been held, some with splendid results. At Turtle Creek, where a splendid tent meeting has just closed, a wood tabernacle is being erected in which to continue the work this coming year. The Pittsburgh District will hold its first general quarterly meeting there. Listen for reports from Turtle Creek. Three new societies have been organized. One of these is at Bolivar, where it was thought that our work had been buried. The districts all report good camp meetings, while Uniontown District reports the largest and best one of their history. The evangelistic board of the conference helped largely to finance the work at Johnstown and Morgantown with but little success.

As to the ministry, there can be no better class of men and women found on the earth, so unworldly, consecrated and holy. They have in most every case devoted themselves to the work assigned them by the conference. Some complaints come to us relative to some preachers who turn aside to secular employment without consent from the churches which they are supposed to serve. Where a society is absolutely unable to support or neglectful of the pastor's real need we would blame no minister if he would turn his hand to honest toil to supplement his salary, but when a society pays a reasonable salary it is highly improper for a minister to insist on doing manual labor. Brethren, let us keep to the work assigned us. In some instances ministers have accepted calls to evangelistic work and left for weeks without first securing the consent of their official boards; again we would say, brethren, let us be fair with our people who support us and have a claim upon us. We are sorry to note that in a few instances some ministers speak lightly and treat with indifference some requirements made upon them by the church; we refer to the stewardship fund, Sunday-school tithe and such requirements. Brethren, we are not to serve ourselves, but the church; we are not to mend the rules, but keep them. Make at least an honest effort to do your duty on these lines. Relative to our ministry, we note with sadness the passing away of our comrade and fellow minister, H. H. O'Bryon. As this will be noted otherwise, we make no further reference here.

The societies in general are doing well in supporting their pastors. In a few places we could wish for improvement. Let every society as far as in them lies see that their minister is adequately supported so there will be no occasion to see him side-stepping with paint or paste-brush in hand like the priests of old who were driven to the field because the tithe was withheld. We would here urge every society to keep up the work of the tithers' league, enlist every member of the church and get even friends to unite with you in paying God His just dues. There is a growing tendency in some societies towards independence, and in some cases insubordination is in evidence. It is becoming a common thing to hear the work of the stationing committee spoken of as a joke. In our case we have nine godly men chosen by the church to give themselves to this work. They pray, they plan, they groan, they weep, and with the material they have they do their very best under God to serve the work of the conference. Let us pray for them, hold up their hands and cease to look at the work from the narrow standpoint of "myself" and never be found criticizing or helping to undo their work. Let us be Free Methodists in this as well as in other respects.

What of the future? Our responsibility is the same if not greater to "go into all the world and preach the gospel," or, in the language of Methodism, to scatter holiness over these lands. The teaching message of Jesus easily and naturally falls into three divisions of religious truth—redemptive, evangelistic and social. The first reveals the divine plan of redemption; the second relates to the duty of making this program known as the gospel of saving power; the third relates to the application of the principles of Christian life, conduct and service, along such lines as will improve the conditions of life among men. Evangelism is the great slogan of the gospel and the law of spiritual life to us. To simply "hold" an appointment means to "die in your nest." Our life depends upon pressing into the great harvest fields which are even now ready to harvest. To the evangelistic board we would say, while the efforts did not net much at Johnstown and Morgantown this past year, do not lose heart, but try again and put some support back of every aggressive move to reach new fields as well as resurrect old ones. The great and indispensable need of the church at the present day is a renewal of Pentecost; or to put it better still, the great and indispensable need is such a baptism of the Holy Spirit as shall be answerable to the scripture promise of "the latter rain in its season." The primitive Pentecost was only "the early rain" which causes the seed to germinate. The latter rain is that which matures the harvest. The Scriptures warrant the belief that there is an outpouring of the Spirit to come such as will have all the essential elements of that which occurred at the primitive Pentecost, but on a vastly enlarged scale, and with even much more glorious results. "O Lord, increase our faith." Enlarge the vision of our church as to her privilege, opportunity and responsibility. Help her to arise, and go forth to the final and full accomplishment of her mission, "fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners."

In conclusion let us say that our greatest danger is not directly from the devil, neither is it from the world, but as Christ said is from within. Take heed unto yourselves. If the devil can destroy that "one accord" and that "together in one place" which brought the early Pentecost, we shall soon be an easy prey of the devil and will soon devour ourselves. As in the early history of our country "we must hang together or hang separately." Let us here quote to you paragraph 148 of our excellent book of Discipline: "We should be deeply sensible, from what we have known, of the evil of division in principle, spirit, or practise, and of the dreadful consequences to ourselves and others. If we are united, what can stand before us? If we divide, we shall destroy ourselves, the work of God, and the souls of our people. In order to a closer union with each other. 1. We should be deeply convinced of the absolute necessity of it. 2. Pray earnestly for, and speak freely to each other. 3. When we meet, let us never part without prayer. 4. Take care not to despise each others' gifts. 5. Never speak lightly of one another. 6. Defend one another's character in everything, so far as is consistent with truth. 7. Labor in honor each to prefer the other. 8. We recommend a serious perusal of "The Causes, Evils and Cures of Heart and Church Divisions."

MISCELLANEOUS

The nineteenth session of the South Africa Mission Conference was held at Itamba M. S., Enqabeni, Natal, South Africa, April 16-20, 1924.

It was a great treat to have with us the missionary secretary and his wife, Rev. W. B. and Mrs. Olmstead. Their messages, both in the native services and in the missionaries' meetings, were greatly enjoyed by all. His presence was a great help in deciding the many problems that confront a mission conference.

At the first sitting of the missionaries' meeting it was decided to separate Inhambane and the Transvaal work from the rest of the conference. This action greatly reduces our territory as well as our numerical strength. We trust, however, that the work of God may be blessed by this action, and "we shall still be joined in heart" if not in our conference relations. Rev. A. M. Anderson was chosen president for the coming year.

MEETING OF THE GENERAL MISSIONARY BOARD

The General Missionary Board met in its annual meeting, at 1132 Washington Boulevard, Chicago, on Thursday, October 23, at 2:30 p. m. The president, Bishop William Pearce, presided. There were eleven sittings, the last one being held on Tuesday evening, October 28, and closing at 9:45 p. m.

There was but one absent member, Rev. A. L. Whitcomb, whose duties as general conference evangelist made it impracticable for him to be present.

The following missionaries were in attendance: Rev. and Mrs. Jules Ryff, Miss Alice Evans, and Mrs. Lydia O. Gaudin, from Africa; Miss Helen I. Root, and Rev. Winfred N. Thuline, from India; and Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft, from China. These persons were introduced and addressed the Board.

The following general conference evangelists were present: Rev. A. D. Zahniser, Rev. E. Ballenger, and Rev. B. W. Huckabee. There were also a number of visitors present from time to time.

The missionary secretary, Rev. W. B. Olmstead, presented his report on our foreign mission fields. This occupied the whole of three sittings and a part of a fourth. Carefully prepared maps and charts illustrated the mission stations and compounds, and these, together with many camera pictures taken by the secretary, helped to bring the fields more comprehensively to the minds of the members of the Board. The Board tendered a rising vote of thanks to the secretary for his "excellent and far-reaching report."

The field secretary, Rev. F. L. Baker, and the assistant secretary, Rev. W. W. Vinson, each reported. The general conference evangelists present made their reports, and that of Rev. A. L. Whitcomb was read to the Board. The treasurer, Rev. Newton W. Fink, reported.

The following were elected directors: Bishop William Pearce, Bishop Walter A. Sellew, Rev. W. B. Olmstead, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, Rev. Peter White, Rev. J. M. Critchlow, and Rev. W. W. Vinson.

Superintendents were elected as follows: China, E. P. Ashcraft; Dominican Republic, H. F. Johnson; The Transvaal, Africa, J. W. Haley; the Japanese work in Northern California territory, Oregon, and Washington, August Youngren, with the request by the Board that he hold quarterly meetings for the Japanese people in the Southern California territory; Home Missions, Southern California territory, B. H. Pearson; Panama and the Canal Zone, B. L. Beegle.

The following treasurers were elected: Japan, Miss Gertrude Aylard; China, Miss Mattie J. Peterson; India, Miss Louise D. Calkins; Portuguese East Africa and the Transvaal, J. W. Haley; Dominican Republic, Miss Eva Whiffen; Panama and the Canal Zone, B. L. Beegle; Home Missions, Northern California territory, C. L. Manning; Southern California territory, Clara R. Freeland. The treasurer for the South Africa Mission Conference is A. E. Haley.

The secretary's report showed that the territory of the South Africa Mission Conference had been divided in harmony with instructions given by the General Conference.

The Board commended the school in Portuguese East Africa as it is now being carried on, and advised that it be continued for the present as a coeducational institution.

The secretary was authorized to secure two married couples for the Portuguese East Africa field, and a teacher for the Dominican Republic.

Action was taken returning the following missionaries who are home on furlough: Rev. and Mrs. Jules Ryff, to the Transvaal, Africa, and Miss Bernice M. Wood, to China, as soon as sailing arrangements can be made. During the year, Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Thuline are to return to India; Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft and Rev. and Mrs. G. L. McClish, to China; and Mrs. Lydia O. Gaudin, to Portuguese East Africa.

Furloughs were granted to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Wagner and Miss Lillian O. Pickens, of Japan; Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Backenstoe, Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, and Rev. and Mrs. N. B. Ghormley, of Africa; Rev. and Mrs. Floyd A. Puffer, of India; Rev. and Mrs. Carroll Smith, of Portuguese East Africa; and Misses Clara Hayden and Eva Whiffen, of the Dominican Republic. These furloughs are due the coming spring and fall.

It was decided that Rev. and Mrs. Frank F. Warren should be sent to Japan during 1925, and their outgoing was left with the secretary.

The Board authorized the opening of home mission work among the Italians at Melrose Park, Illinois.

On Monday morning a memorial service was held, conducted by Bishop W. A. Sellw. Addresses on the life, character, and death of Dr. A. L. Grinnell, of China, were made by Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ashcraft and the missionary secretary. Mention was also made of the death of Rev. H. M. Damon, retired missionary, who had spent one term in India.

A resolution was passed commending the Japanese church for their great courage and faithfulness during the past year which has been one of severe trial and testing.

Also a resolution was passed commending the management of the Osaka Bible Training School, and the students were requested to do their utmost to provide for their own living expenses.

The erection of a new building on Main Street, Los Angeles, California, for our Mexican work was authorized by the Board. It is expected that this building project will be financed outside of Board funds.

The missionary secretary was elected delegate to the Foreign Mission Convention to be held in Washington, D. C., January 28 to February 2, 1925. He was authorized to appoint and give credentials to delegates to this conference up to the full number of our quota.

The Board expressed its appreciation of the financial assistance being given to our work in Japan by the St. Paul Union Church, of Beverly Hills, Chicago.

The following resolution was passed: "In view of the many perplexing and complicated problems which continually arise in the administration of missionary work, it is the judgment of this Board that a representative of the Board should visit the field at least once every six years."

The Board approved of the changes made in connection with the Bible Training School in India, in moving it to Yeotmal, in making it a full nine months' school, and in bringing the evangelists in from the outstations to attend the school.

Action was taken commending the native churches in all our fields for the advance steps they are taking with respect to self-support; and further, it asked the members of the native churches to tithe their incomes and thus, as far as possible, pay the expenses of their own churches and preachers.

The Board approved of the use of the duplex envelope in connection with the regular church offerings, with the hope of providing a regular flow of funds into the treasury for foreign missions.

It was requested that the Directors provide for a week of Self-denial for Foreign Missions during the year. Later the Directors voted that May 18 to 24, 1925, be observed as a week of self-denial.

The following general missionaries were present and reported: Mrs. Rebecca E. Sellw, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, Mrs. Emma L. Hogue, and Mrs. Minnie L. Olmstead. The report of Mrs. Harriet Baker was read.

On motion, a rising vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Olmstead for her splendid articles telling of their travels in mission lands, which were published in the Free Methodist.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY'S REPORT

I began my work in the present relation, July 1, 1924, and labored the first two weeks in the home mission work in and near Los Angeles. Since that time I have attended four camp meetings, seven annual conferences, two district meetings, and visited six local societies in the interests of the work. I have preached seventeen times, delivered twenty-eight foreign and home missionary addresses, besides numerous informal talks and conferences with the missionary societies.

The amount raised in the several meetings in which I have taken part is $4,250.00. I have traveled 6,200 miles, and my expenses have been $81.64.

Everywhere I have met with the most cordial reception and have been given the heartiest cooperation. I have been conscious of much of the Lord's blessing.

FIELD SECRETARY'S REPORT

In making my annual report to you at this time I wish to express my sincere gratitude to our heavenly Father for His tender mercy and care so manifest to me and mine. The year past has been one of incessant labor in my work, doing as best I have known what I could for the advancement of the cause of Christ. Our constant desire and prayer has been that we might know better how to serve and be a greater blessing. I have had strength and health to preach or give missionary addresses on an average of over six times a week during the ten months from November 1, 1923, to September 1, 1924, at which time I gathered items for this report. I have traveled 19,623 miles during this period throughout our conferences, have held several ten days' meetings, assisted in four camp meetings and attended seven conferences in the interest of missions. The privilege of having my wife and daughter with me in meetings during the summer was made possible by traveling in an automobile, and has been a great pleasure to me personally. In all our travels we have been treated with the utmost kindness, of which we feel most unworthy, and we could have employed several bodies to have complied with the multiplied invitations to hold meetings.

There has been a very marked financial depression, and in many places our offerings and subscriptions were not more than half what they were last year. Many factories have been running only part time for months. The Lord has opened the way to secure considerable by personal solicitation among our people and outside the church. It is evident that God has been pleased to touch many hearts in behalf of our missionary work in answer to prayer. The way has opened to secure the support of two missionaries in India through one brother, and the support of two others in the same country by two other parties. The support of these missionaries has been taken with no promise of a definite time other than one whose note or pledge witnessed calls for seven years' support. The support of twenty-eight native workers has been secured. We shall have closed up in a few days arrangements for the support of several more native workers and four more missionaries in China and Africa; however, we make no report at this time in the finance of that secured or to be secured during the months of September and October. The deed has been given us of a farm worth at least $8,000.00, and the parties who are holding a life lease and paying all expenses report that since thus deeded it has produced more than in any three years previous. The following amounts have been secured or subscribed in the various meetings and from individuals: Cash, $9,474.00; subscriptions, $18,410.00; annuity, $400.00, and the Board has been made the beneficiary in a $1,000 life insurance policy, in all $37,284.00. All raised at the conferences and in the greater part of the missionary meetings held was credited to the W. M. S. My expenses for the year amount to $287.05, the whole of which has been paid from offerings given for assisting in meetings or from that handed me personally. A detailed account of all expenses is filed with the treasurer.

The only regret in the past year has been that I have not been able to serve more effectually and have not seen more souls brought to Jesus and greater amounts raised for the spread of the gospel. Between thirty and forty were taken into the church at the four camp meetings we attended, and a number in the special meetings held, but so few to what there should be had we greater power with God. My need of a more prayerful life and careful study of His Word was never so apparent and our personal interests were never so small. We are willing, which includes my wife and our one daughter at home, to serve in any place the church thinks best, to continue in the work we are in, or to joyfully give place to another; in fact, to do anything that will best serve Him and further the kingdom.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE FREE METHODIST CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA

W. M. S. Executive Committee

The Woman's Missionary Society Executive Committee convened in its twenty-first session at their headquarters in Chicago on October 20, 1924, at 9:30 a. m., the president, Mrs. Mary L. Coleman, in the chair. Mrs. R. E. Sellew, Mrs. E. L. MacGeary, Miss A. P. Carpenter, Mrs. L. C. Jensen, Mrs. E. L. Hogue, Miss H. E. Sheldon, Mrs. L. B. Griffith, Mrs. C. T. Burritt, Mrs. Agnes Benn and Mrs. C. T. Bolles answered the calling of the roll. The secretary, Mrs. Julia A. Muffitt, was detained at home. Miss Helen I. Root was elected secretary pro tem. The season of devotion at the beginning of the meeting was inspiring, giving all a sense of dependence on God for wisdom and guidance.

The president presented in her report various problems that she had met during the year, questions from the conferences to be answered, and letters of greeting and of appreciation of our work from several sources.

The corresponding secretary brought a very encouraging report of increase in membership and activities, a total of 2505 new members. The treasurer reported a gain in the receipts for the year—the total from the W. M. S. being $126,099.30, plus an amount raised by the young people of $11,037.87, making a total of $137,137.17. Besides this she reported $963.55 interest received. From the contingent fund Mrs. Jensen reported that there had been paid to the general treasurer $4500 to the Home Missions fund, $1500 for missionary in India, $1100 for automobile for Africa.

The traveling secretary, Helen I. Root, brought a report of her work in eight conferences which was of interest to all. She expressed appreciation of the friendly aid of her Ford which had carried her safely over 1500 miles. A vote of special gratitude was taken for the way the plans of the executive committee have been carried out. Letters of approval from different conferences were read.

The Young People's superintendent gave a report of progress—twenty-four conferences having organized under the new constitution and working with apparent blessing, having raised over $11,000. An increase of 82 societies and 1264 members was reported.

The Junior superintendent reported a gain of 1016 members, and good work accomplished in many societies. The literature agent's report showed books sold to the amount of $3,928.20. Plans for increase in the department were discussed.

The Missionary Tidings subscriptions are increased about 1000 this year. More are needed.

From the mission study secretary we learned that thirty-two conferences reported, most of them encouragingly of increase in study and workers' conferences.

The Home Missions secretary told of many activities, new leaflets on Japanese, Mexican, Indian and Canal Zone work, which furnish good material for meetings. Stewardship education is resulting in larger paying and praying, and $17,324.47 has been raised for Home Missions. The thank-offering boxes brought in $4768.75 to this department. A chart was presented showing by gold stars the conferences that have raised an amount equal to at least one dollar per member for Home Missions. The names have been sent in of 1081 persons pledging to daily Bible reading and prayer, tithing and service whenever and wherever possible. The Calendar this year is on Home Missions.

The name of only one woman candidate for the foreign field was presented for consideration.

Various visitors were present from time to time. From among the missionaries Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft, Mrs. Ethel Ryff, Alice Evans and Mr. Thuline were present and spoke interestingly to the committee. The missionary secretary was present at times during the session to give some results of his trip in the form of instructions to the women, and suggesting ways of cooperation with the pastors to aid in the work. Mrs. Olmstead who accompanied her husband over all the mission fields brought greetings from the women of the Orient to our women, telling us that they appreciate our sacrifices for them. She reminded the women that they must not begin to "push" in the work until they had felt the strong "pull" from above, and continue to make that "pull" the strongest element in our service. Mary J. Everhart and her workers were also among the welcome visitors.

Letters from some of the conferences asking for instructions and offering suggestions received sympathetic attention and will be answered.

The box committee superintendent, Mrs. Coffee, who has been very ill for months, sent a fine report showing that the value of boxes sent to the foreign fields, with the expense thereon, was $4180.19. The missionary secretary advises some definite changes in the present plan of serving in this department.

A number of appointments were made for women representatives to attend certain summer schools of missions and conventions, largely at their own expense.

A tender memorial service was held for Mrs. Martha B. Hart, for years past a valued member of our advisory board. Mrs. Delia M. Wilson, of Gerry, New York, was elected to fill the vacancy.

In the discussing of many plans and reports there was harmony, and one of the first members of the committee remarked that "the Spirit of the Lord seemed present in an unusual way." Praises for preservation of all members and of the missionaries were expressed. In the strength of the Lord we go forth to spread "good news."

Report of the W. M. S. Corresponding Secretary, 1923-1924

We believe it has been with a good degree of faithfulness that the organization of the Woman's Missionary Society has been meeting its responsibility in helping the General Missionary Board raise funds to carry forward its work of preaching the gospel in all lands.

Just thirty years ago this month (in 1894) the General Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was organized at the time of the General Conference in Greenville, Illinois, under the leadership of Rev. J. G. Terrill. We must not forget our first earnest and able president for eight years—Mrs. Ellen Lois Roberts, who said to us as women, "Whatever you say, say it strong; whatever you do, do it strong." We also express our thankfulness for "what God hath wrought" through this organization during the years since, while Mrs. Mary L. Coleman has been our president. Each year now we are raising more money than was raised during the first sixteen years of our work. There has also been a very steady increase in interest and in membership all along the years.

This year more books have been read, more interest manifested on the part of mission study leaders, and there have been more successful workers' conferences at general gatherings. All-day monthly meetings have been helpful. Many leaflets have been distributed.

From some of the smaller conferences reports are encouraging:

Alberta's loss of membership is easily accounted for in the repeated failure of crops for several years, necessitating the moving away of a good many people, especially from the Southern District. But they are encouraged with the splendid increase of over 33 1-3 per cent in amount raised for missions this year.

Arkansas and Southern Missouri reports that their missionary interest is encouragingly on the "up-grade." It means much more for them to give money than for many others.

Missouri W. M. S. is sending books to Panama mission library, some of the young are getting a vision, and they are encouraged.

In the widely scattered region of the Louisiana Conference (comprising three states) and in the large area covered by the Texas Conferences, they are courageous to maintain any organized work at all. We should remember in prayer these conferences which in reality represent missionary territory. Should we not give them helpful attention, and encouragement to do the kind of work best fitted to their situations? From more frequent visits of missionaries these smaller groups of pilgrims might receive a vision of new possibilities for their endeavor. Most of the smaller conferences give in higher ratio per capita than many of the larger ones. Minnesota and Northern Iowa have long been standing at the top of the list, and this year gave $8.96 per member instead of what was asked—$5.66.

This is also true of subscriptions to the Tidings. Kentucky and Tennessee having twenty-five copies to a membership of twenty-eight. Many of the large conferences have only a ratio of one to eight of their total membership. East Michigan, Nebraska, and Wisconsin have each made more than 100 per cent gain in subscriptions to the Tidings, while Wabash, North Michigan, Pittsburgh, and Colorado come next. Active members number 11,846, while only 4,580 subscriptions are reported.

One conference reports that fifteen life membership pledges were given at a conference meeting. This is suggestive.

Those conferences that have increased enough this year to bring their total membership above 1,000 are Central Illinois, New York, Susquehanna, and Washington, making ten conferences with over 1,000. Oil City has 2,528 and Pittsburgh has gained 436 members, bringing them up to 3,100. But others are making splendid gains this year, either in adding members or in reporting. Washington reports a gain of 246 in total membership; Wabash, 187; Wisconsin, 174; Oil City, 169; Southern California, 166; Illinois, 151; New York, 121; Michigan, 101; Colorado, 83; and East Texas with 39 added to her small number means more. Even more remarkable is the gain in two small conferences—Southern Oregon and Arkansas and Southern Missouri—which have each doubled their total membership. Total reported for all, 28,987.

The conference making the largest numerical gain in active members is Pittsburgh, showing 65 additional, while Wisconsin adds 59 and Wabash 51.

In honorary membership Michigan shows the greatest increase—36, with Pittsburgh, Wabash, Wisconsin, North Indiana, and Central Illinois closely behind.

There has been reported a splendid gain in Young People's Missionary Societies—Kansas showing 13 new ones, Southern California 8, and Pittsburgh a gain of over 100 per cent. Pittsburgh Conference shows the highest gain in membership among the young people—148, Kansas shows 126, Washington 125, Oil City 96, Wisconsin 94, West Kansas 80, and East Ontario, Genesee, New York, and North Michigan each with a gain of over 40. This makes a total gain of 1,264 young people, now numbering 4,642.

There have been some notable gains in the Junior membership. Arkansas and Southern Missouri, Minnesota and Northern Iowa, and Missouri have more than doubled their number, while Pittsburgh has added 187 Juniors, Central Illinois 142, Washington 119, Illinois 108, Wabash 105, Oil City 87, Southern California 82, East Ontario 62, New York 60; Susquehanna 55, Michigan 52, Georgia and Florida 47, Oklahoma 42, and Colorado 37, making a gain of 1,016 this year. Total Juniors, 8,890.

These figures are enlightening and encouraging to any who will consider them. How glorious if these thousands of children and young people may be converted and set apart as "love slaves" of Jesus Christ to help bring the world to know of a Savior. That is why we have Junior and Young People's Missionary Societies—with this hope. May we of the W. M. S. get a new vision of our responsibilities in bringing these young lives into vital, saving touch with the Savior we are seeking to present to the heathen world. Let us lead them in safe paths to His blessed feet, then can they say, "Here am I, send me."

MRS. C. T. BOLLES, Cor. Sec.
